- *Book: It's A Small World
- *Hobby: Exercising

A Little Bit About Me

I live with my husband Dan, our two daughters, and our dog Bella. Scarlett is 5 years old and is in kindergarten. Jessica is 9 months old and just started crawling! I love spending time with my family and friends, going for walks and bike rides, reading, and watching American Ninja Warrior. Our favorite place is Disney World and I would love to visit Puerto Rico someday!

Educational Background

I have my Bachelor's in Elementary Education and my Master's in English as a Second Language from Elms College. This past summer I took the course Culturally and Linguistically Diverse Learners with Special Needs. I have also taken a beginner's course to learn a little Spanish. My passion is helping students learn English while encouraging them to further develop their native language and celebrating their culture. Being bilingual is cool!
